Notes to Tables 1, 3, and 5

(a.) The titles of offences (Column 1) are much condensed. The fuller titles, and the offences comprised under each head, are given on page 36 of the Criminal Statistics for 1895 except in some few cases where subsequent enactments have made further changes necessary.

(b.) The Tables show the number of persons prosecuted, not the number of offences. Where, therefore, any person is prosecuted at the same Assizes or Sessions for several offences, one offence has to be selected for tabulation; and the rule followed is to select that for which the proceedings were carried to the furthest stage—to trial if there were several indictments, to conviction and sentence if prisoner was tried on several charges. If there are several convictions, the offence selected is that for which the heaviest punishment was awarded. If the final result of proceedings on two or more charges is the same, the more serious offence (as measured by the maximum penalty allowed by law) appears in the Tables.

(c.) Where, in addition to the offence thus selected for detailed tabulation, the same person is prosecuted for other offences of a distinct character, and charged in separate indictments, the number of these additional charges is given in columns 24 to 26 of the Tables, column 24 giving the total number of such charges, column 25 the number resulting in convictions, and column 26 the number for which separate sentences (not concurrent with those in columns 11 to 19) are passed. Only distinct offences charged in separate indictments are included in these columns; additional indictments merely varying the form of the charge, and additional charges appearing as counts in the same indictment, are excluded.

(d.) Where a person is prosecuted for one offence and convicted for another (e.g. committed for murder and convicted of manslaughter), the case appears only under the offence of which he was convicted.

(e.) Columns 2, 3, and 4 ("Numbers for Trial") include only such cases as actually come before the Assizes or Quarter Sessions. Persons who die, escape from prison, abscond while on bail, or are removed to an asylum before trial, are not included.

(f.) Column 18 ("Imprisonment") does not include sentences of imprisonment in default of payment of fine, or in default of finding sureties.

(g.) Columns 19 and 23 ("Recognizances") include cases where recognizances are required, whether with or without sureties and, if sureties are required, whether they are found or not.

(h.) Columns 20 to 23 are for those cases where more than one punishment is imposed for the same offence.

of City, during

[illegible]

Notes to Table 19.

(a.) Column 1, "Offences."—The titles of the offences are the same as in Tables 1 to 5.

(b.) Column 2, "Number of Crimes known to the Police"—This column includes all crimes reported to the police within the year whether committed by the same or different persons, and whether any apprehension takes place within the year or not.

(c.) If there is a commitment or conviction within the year, the Table shows the nature of the crime as judicially determined. Failing this, the charge which is named in the summons or warrant on which the prisoner is arrested is taken as determining the crime. If there are no proceedings and no apprehension, the character of the crime is judged by the facts so far as known to the police.

(d.) In columns 3 to 18 the number of persons proceeded against is given, not the number of crimes or charges. A person charged at the same time with several offences appears as one person only. In selecting the offence for tabulation the same principle is followed as in Tables 1 to 5—the charge resulting in conviction or committal for trial has preference to the others; and subject to this the more serious offence is selected. If there are two or more convictions at the same time, that for which the heavier sentence is inflicted is regarded as the more serious. These columns include only cases disposed of within the year. Cases pending at the end of the year are reserved for inclusion in the following year's tables.

(e.) Columns 4 and 12, "Discharged," contain cases where the Magistrate does not assume power to try the case summarily, but discharges the accused under Section 15 of the Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851, or Section 25 of the Indictable Offences (Ireland) Act, 1849.

(f.) Columns 5 and 13, "Tried Summarily and Acquitted," contain cases where, after the Magistrate has decided to deal summarily with the case, the charge is dismissed or withdrawn.

(g.) Columns 6 and 14, "Charge proved and order made without conviction," contain cases dealt with under Sections 1 and 2 of the Probation of Offenders Act, 1907, and cases of children charged with indictable offences committed to industrial schools or to the custody of relatives, &c.

(h.) Columns 8 and 16, "Committed for Trial and Detained," include all persons committed to prison or place of detention to await trial, whether they are subsequently released on bail or not.

Notes to Table 20.

(i.) The titles of the offences are the same as in Table 14 (b), and, as in that Table, only criminal proceedings are included.

(j.) Notes (c) and (d) above apply to this Table.
